GROUP HUMAN RESOURCES MANAGER'S APPRAISAL MARCH 2026-JUNE, 2026.

This document comprises of appraisal done by the Human Resources Department of all the subsidiaries under EIB GROUP. The subsidiaries in EIB Group are;

1. BRIECH UAS
2. BRIECH ATLANTIC
3. LUFT PAY TV
4. BRIGHT ECHEFU FOUNDATION
5. LUFTREIBER AUTOMOBILE
6. BRIGHT FM
7. EIB STRATOC LIMITED
8. GIGA FORENSICS
9. POCTOVA LIMITED

1. SUMMARY OF CONSOLIDATED MONTHLY PERFORMANCE REPORT OF ALL SUBSIDIARIES

The consolidated monthly report shows strong overall subsidiary performance led by EIB Stratoc, with top-tier output from Giga Forensics, Poctova, and Luftreiber Automobile. While Briech UAS prepares for drone production and Briech Atlantic seeks external patronage, Luft Pay TV is temporarily off the air with staff reassigned. Bright FM faces low advertisement revenue despite wide coverage, and the Foundation has no current activities, classifying both as underperforming this period.

The three (3) major performing subsidiaries with notable achievement and performance are;

EIB STRATOC LTD.

The Subsidiary has been the one with the highest performance in terms of income, revenue and growth. EIB Stratoc according to management and as it can be well seen, it is the one that pays the salaries of all staff.

The staff and all managers who have managed the affairs of the subsidiary have dedication and commitment. The staff in the camps have enable the growth of the subsidiary but above all it is the management who have made it possible for the growth and income of this subsidiary.

With the type of services it renders, EIB Stratoc have saved a lot that could have gone wrong in some key locations in Nigeria.

BRIECH UAS

This subsidiary has also been performing greatly alongside EIB Stratoc. In terms of operations, EIB Stratoc has to work with Briech UAS.

GIGA FORENSIC

The subsidiary has been performing very well in all the areas it provides its expertise. The Company has achieved notables in securing lives of Nigerians with the help of the management who made it happened.

LUFTREIBER AUTOMOBILE

The subsidiary has been generating incomes it is one of the subsidiaries with few staff but with great income. As at June, 2026, Luftreiber is to start paying its staff from the company's account

POCTOVA

This is a fast-growing Subsidiary. It has generated income for the organization more than other subsidiaries based on its activities.

HUMAN CAPITAL DEVELOPMENT (HCD) REPORT

1. Recruitment activities: There was no recruitment activities for the period of this appraisal but there was newly hired based on recommendations of the managements for candidates with leadership or specialized potential who can be developed into critical roles down the line. Shaping recruitment activities by transforming hiring from a simple administrative process into a long-term strategic investment. Instead of merely filling open positions,
2. New Hires: The Human Resources Team ensured new hires are quickly paired with mentors or coaches during the initial hire phase to foster rapid knowledge transfer and engagement. Onboarding programs for all subsidiaries are structurally tied to initial training initiatives to convert the candidate's raw potential into functional workplace productivity. This was done when Staff from Giga were transferred to Black and then EIB Stratoc Staff moved to fill up vacancies at Giga, the HR department had to conduct interviews with some of identified Poctova Staff and transferred them to EIB Stratoc. Again, when Luft staff were transferred to EIB, we had to do the onboarding processes. Hiring decisions are based on future business objectives, ensuring new hires have the capacity to adapt to incoming technological or industry shift
3. Employee Turnover: Using this strategy for reducing employee turnover. By providing continuous training, clear career progression, and management development, organizations foster job satisfaction and long-term commitment, directly addressing the root causes of voluntary resignations.
4. Staff retention rates: The organization has effectively retained staff corps members effectively utilize human capital development by retaining top talent and conducting routine skill-gap assessments to tailor training to specific employee and departmental needs.
5. Promotions: The rate of promotion in the subsidiaries of the organization is high in that Promotion relies heavily on internal talent management and succession planning and building strong leadership.
6. Succession planning: the HR department has engaged itself in grooming the team to handle whatever a HR officer is doing in the subsidiary. We achieved that by rotation within subsidiaries. In places like Nigeria, where knowledge transfer and management in both civil services and private enterprises are prioritized, the department aligns development with internal grooming to improves talent retention.

7. Leadership Development Programs: The Group has severally organised training programs for the group and subsidiary managers. The Training focuses on an individual manager's self-awareness, emotional intelligence, and decision-making and the training teaches managers how to communicate, build trust, and manage teams. Managers who get equipped with these skills are better at transferring knowledge, reducing employee turnover, and coaching subordinates.
8. Training conducted: The management have afforded trainings to the manager by targeting Skill Building, conducting specific programs tailored to organizational goals, ranging from technical Skills training to all managers and Management.
9. Workforce planning: The department has used skilled mapping and training to identify exact skills needed in all the subsidiaries.

10. RISK, GOVERNANCE AND COMPLIANCE REPORT

- Compliance breaches: there has been need to call staff and talk with them on the need for compliance to their contract of employment like the need not to disclose what they are not supposed to discuss with an outsider and to keep them in check.
- Legal matters: Any legal matter has been handled by the legal department and the Human Resources Department. There are instances issues may arise between the company and the Department has advised the legal department on what to do and personally handled some.
- Regulatory concerns: the Organization has tried to handle regulatory concerns by enacting the regulations needed for all subsidiaries as prescribed by company Laws in Nigeria.

The organization has tried to comply withal set Laws of the Federal Republic of Nigeria for all its subsidiaries as needed and corrections have been taken and preventive measures put in place like having all the regulatory compliance.

MANAGEMENT ACTION IMPLEMENTATION REPORT

- Instructions issued to subsidiary managers: All subsidiary managers comply with management instructions whenever they are issued out in a memos like meetings, appraisal. This is by actively listening and executing task.
- Action plans developed: The management have made it mandatory for all managers to have their well-planned actions for each quarter of the years.
- Implementation status: the managers are usually involved in ensuring that all operational instructions of the management as assigned are executed. Like the tracking of attendance, usage of phones for personal use while at work and others.
- Results achieved: instructions given by management are usually integrated into daily operations for effectiveness.
- Delayed actions: sometimes technical issues like networks and electricals stall the progress of instructions.

TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

Due to internal restructuring of the organization, some managers' appointments were terminated as follows;

1. Fifty (50) tailors from Poctova were laid off because their services were not needed and they were listed during the official downsizing.
2. The Administrator of Briech Hospital was disengaged since the Hospital has not yet come up.
3. The Head of Electricians was laid off for lack of dedication to his work.
4. The General Manager of EIB Stratoc was laid off for syphoning company's finance
5. The Group head of internal control was laid off for the reason mentioned above.

The March-June 2026 period was a significant quarter for LUFT Pay TV HR operations, marked by major organizational changes, policy enforcement, and consistent employee engagement. Despite the challenges of restructuring, the HR department maintained operational continuity, upheld staff welfare standards, and delivered consistent reporting to management. The down time really affected the activity of Luft TV and our customers are really bothered with the fact that there didn't enjoy the value of their money before the down time and we pray we come back soon better.

Going into Q3 2026, the focus should shift toward rebuilding staff confidence, strengthening development programs, and improving HR visibility across all locations. The foundation laid during this period positions LUFT Pay TV for a more structured and productive second half of the year.

BEF maintained a workforce strength of four (4) employees during the review period. The staff structure is as follows:

S/N	Name	Position
1	Unche Joseph Eghimulim	Program Officer and Support Services
2	Marcus Belove Gziyatiya	Monitoring and Evaluation Officer
3	Oluwaseyi Akinfa	Admin Officer/Assistant to the General Manager
4	Grace Godiya Jazom	Secretary to the General Manager

Staff Leave Administration

During the reporting period, one (1) staff member proceeded on approved annual leave. The leave was properly approved and administered in accordance with the organization's leave policy.

Key Activities and Achievements

The Foundation successfully carried out several community development and educational support initiatives during the reporting period. Notable among these were:

- Women's Day Outreach Programme, during which grinding machines were distributed to beneficiaries as part of the Foundation's women empowerment initiative.
- Educational Support Programme, which included school visits and the sponsorship of WAEC examination fees for selected students to support access to education and academic development.

Employee Performance Assessment

All employees demonstrated a high level of commitment, professionalism, and dedication to their respective responsibilities during the review period. Staff effectively collaborated to achieve the Foundation's objectives and successfully executed assigned programmes and administrative responsibilities.

Disciplinary Record

RESTRICTED

No disciplinary issues were recorded during the reporting period. Consequently, no verbal warnings, queries, or other disciplinary actions were issued to any member of staff.

Outstanding Staff Performance

All staff members performed exceptionally well during the review period and contributed significantly to the successful implementation of the Foundation's programmes and activities. Their commitment, teamwork, and dedication to organizational goals were commendable.

Departmental Rating

Programmes and Support Services – Excellent

Monitoring and Evaluation – Excellent

Administration – Excellent

Executive Support Services – Excellent

Overall Subsidiary Rating: EXCELLENT

BEF maintained a highly productive, disciplined, and collaborative workforce throughout the reporting period. Staff consistently demonstrated professionalism, accountability, and commitment to the Foundation's mission. The absence of disciplinary cases, combined with the successful execution of community outreach and educational support programmes reflects a positive work culture and effective employee engagement within the Foundation.

Two (2) staff members were granted bereavement leave following the death of their loved ones during the Jos crises and bandit attack.

Sick leave was closely monitored with medical documents required for all illness-related absences

Staff who called in sick were followed up with phone calls to confirm their status and expected return data

One staff was sent a soft copy of Job abandonment notification for failure to report to work for 5 consecutive working days after all efforts to reach them proved abortive. Staff resumed after his guarantor was contacted.

In summary, absenteeism during the quarter had no noticeable impact on operations and staff compliance to punctuality was generally satisfactory. Continued monitoring and timely intervention are recommended to sustain and further reduce unplanned absenteeism.

• STAFF PRODUCTIVITY LEVELS

Staff productivity was evaluated across all departments. Productivity levels were satisfactory with most teams effectively contributing to key production targets such as prototype development, component assembly, system integration and testing activities.

Productivity Assessment (BRIECH UAS)

Technical Team

- This constitutes of various unit within the production arm which carries out all activities from the design of the drone to the testing of the drone. However, some units such as documentation& data collection, Research and development do not do much as a separate research and development team are usually formed within staff for specific projects or resolving certain technical problems.

Quality control Team

- Conducts inspections and quality checks.
- Supports compliance with manufacturing standards.
- Reduce product defect rates.

Human resources/Admin/Account/IT/Internal control

- Consistently handle all activities within their jurisdiction
- IT officers monitored network, hardware and software maintenance, system troubleshooting and ensuring minimal disruption to daily operations
- Admin officer-maintained records, processed administrative documents, provide logistics support. Admin officer demonstrated strong commitment to ensuring timely completion of administrative tasks
- The Human resources officer-maintained employee records, support performance evaluation process, monitored staff attendance and leave, address employee concerns, contributed to a positive work environment.

EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE HIGHLIGHTS (BRIECH UAS)

Notable Achievements
